Sincere Thanks!

We would like to thank everyone who came to celebrate BICCC's 50th birthday, Friday, November 15th. It was great to see so many former parents and kids mingling with our current families. It's that kind of support and appreciation that gives us the drive to continue doing our very best every day.

One Call For All:

Holidays bring about the spirit of giving and many of our families ask us how they can contribute in a meaningful way. In December we ask you to donate to BICCC through One Call for All (the red envelope). These donations benefit the centers in numerous ways by letting us purchase special activity equipment, host guest speakers and expand our curriculum. Funding has been cut in numerous areas and your help allows this great non-profit to do the amazing things we do. Many Thanks-Shelley Long (BICCC Executive Director)

Don't have a red envelope? You can donate on our website at www.biccc.org or through One Call for All's website at www.onecallforall.org (you can find us "BICCC" in the Non profit Directory). Thank you!

Winter Weather Watch!

Heavy wind and rain storms this year have lead to power outages throughout the area. Keeping your emergency contact information current helps us a great deal in the event of an outage while our programs are in session or if they occur before we open.

If any closure or emergency occurs, staff will notify you as soon as we possibly can. We will either Mail Chimp or BICCC emails to our parents for now, but we are working on another notification system to better keep you informed. More on that to come.

Ushering in the Holiday Season with you!

Brigitte, and Noah
